DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

On December 10, 2020, Amanda Washkalavitch filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleged that she suffered a left shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”), which meets the Table definition for SIRVA, after receiving the influenza vaccine on October 4, 2019. Petition at 1, ¶¶ 2, 16. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On March 18, 2022, I issued a ruling on entitlement, finding Petitioner entitled to compensation for her SIRVA. On May 2, 2022, Respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating Petitioner should be awarded $60,000.00, representing compensation for her pain and suffering. Proffer at 1. In the Proffer,

If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within this definition, I will redact such material from public access.

Respondent represented that Petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Id. Based on the record as a whole, I find that Petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, I award Petitioner a lump sum payment of $60,000.00, representing compensation for her pain and suffering in the form of a check payable to Petitioner. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under Section 15(a).

The Clerk of Court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
